Androscoggin Bank shows strong support for United Way

LEWISTON, MAINE (December 3, 2014) United Way of Androscoggin County was pleased to accept a check in the amount of $16,500 as a corporate gift of support to local United Ways' Community Funds.

Community Funds raised annually during the campaign through corporate donations and from donors are distributed back into the community by funding programs that touch the lives of all ages of life; impacting programs such as early education, financial literacy, food security, rides for medical needs and much more. "Androscoggin Bank employees have continued to show their support of what community means by volunteering, serving as board members and donating in excess of $141,300 over the past 6 years." stated Executive Director, Joleen Bedard.

Susan Lindkvist, United Way of Androscoggin County loaned executive accepts Androscoggin Bank's corporate gift from employees Terri-Ann Boisvert, David Pease, Chris Logan and Joani Derocher-Gamache.

"Androscoggin Bank is proud to be a corporate sponsor of United Ways in the 4 counties that we serve. In addition to creating and providing jobs, we believe it is important as a Maine bank to give financially and volunteer time to support and thank the communities that we serve. The United Way is a great partner and has an outstanding record of success in providing essential programs and services to our most vulnerable citizens throughout various stages of their life. United Way's focus on prevention and proactive approach aligns with Androscoggin Bank's vision to empower our employees, clients and citizens through education, excellence, and building relationship to foster their prosperity. Together we are making a meaningful impact on our community." stated EVP, Chief Resource Officer, David Pease.
